Subject: There is no injustice

Good day all. Every experience is an opportunity to love. Every experience is an opportunity to heal. Every experience is an opportunity to forgive. How else could the children of our Father on High experience the act of unconditional love, experience the act of healing the mind, and experience the act of forgiving all foes without a myriad of experiences to love beyond, without a myriad of experiences to heal the mind, and without a myriad of experiences to forgive the past? Here there is no injustice in those experiences which offer the experience to love — which offer the experience to heal — and which offer the experience to forgive ~ for what else should we use with our time on earth, but to hate, to wound, and to relive. Amen. And may you all be blessed in our Father's love and grace.
