Subject: Not judging the motivations of others

Good day all. In this world of nonsensical madness we try to make sense of the motivations of others by determining these motivations from our own perspective. This gives us a sense of control over a world gone mad ~ and we judge to determine, to make sense of the madness, so we don't feel so powerless and out of control.

But as we judge the madness in this mad hatter world, to make sense of this nonsensical madness ~ we find our selves quickly falling into the land of make believe, where we fall from reality through the rabbit hole. Amen. And may you all be blessed in our Father's love and grace.
