Subject: Treating friend and foe alike

Good day all. When we encounter a foe upon our path, when we quietly say within 'The devil's on my back!' ~ we have a new opportunity to see past the illusion of duality and see friend and foe alike. This not only applies to souls we encounter, but to experiences we encounter ~ for isn't it true we have a programmed loving for heavenly experiences and a programmed hating for hellish experiences? And it is this duality of loving the heavenly and hating the hellish that causes us to divide the bad and the good ~ where we eat of the apple of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, and fall into a nightmare of judging bad and good. Here we rejoice in the good and fight against the bad in a see-saw of emotions that locks us up and down ~ in a roller-coaster ride made by the devil himself, to keep us miles away from the Peace of God. Let us no longer be tempted to judge things 'good or bad' ~ for only by rising above all such temptation, will we eat of the apple of the Tree of Life.

Amen. And may you all be blessed in our Father's love and grace.
