Subject: What it means to forgive

Good day all. How many of us say we want to forgive but can't? And what does it take to forgive the unforgivable? The reality is everything is God in disguise ~ for God's Spirit gives life to every soul. And when we choose not to forgive any soul, we are choosing not to forgive the Spirit of God. It is much easier to hate another if we convince our self they are not the Spirit ~ but Whose Spirit is enacting through them, even in darkness, if it not the Spirit of God? "For without Him was not anything made that was made", even if that Spirit through the soul temporarily descends into darkness. For "the light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, they whole body shall be full of light ... but if the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!" Here we see in Matthew 6:22 that our eye must be single to see 'undivided' the Spirit of God in every soul, so our spirit can ascend into the Spirit of Christ, and move beyond all darkness. Here we come into the Mind of Christ and speak the Word of Christ, "What you do unto the least of these my brethren, you have done it unto me." Here we know the Spirit of all is the Spirit of Christ, the Spirit of God, even as that Spirit temporarily descends into darkness, and we pray to God, "Forgive them Father ~ for they, your offspring, who have descended into darkness ~ they know not what they do." Here we hold the vision of Who They Really Are ~ the Immaculate Conception, the Perfect Vision ~ refusing to let the prince of darkness deceive us they are anything else. Amen. And may you all be blessed in our Father's love and grace.
